Owner & Head Coach Kyle Stelter

(CoachStelter@gmail.com)

Coach Kyle Stelter has been coaching long snappers for the last 12 years and has worked with THE best in the world. From beginners in middle and high school, to Super Bowl Champions, All-Pro Selections, and Pro Bowlers. Coach Stelter not only works with the best in the Pros but also has clients worldwide including Canada, China, Japan, Australia, and Europe!

Special Teams U uses physics to help long snappers improve their technique. We will make you a better long snapper by providing the necessary long snapping corrections, drills, and specialized advice that will benefit YOU. At Special Teams U we make sure that you not only become a better long snapper, but that you fully understand the science behind the snap so that YOU can also be an EXPERT as well!

Special Teams U also offers coaching for Coaches. Coach Stelter will help you to learn the fundamentals of snapping and assist you with your snappers currently on roster through a instructional program geared towards your athletes and the scheme that you run.
